

Accounts Payable (APIS - FOODS)

The Accounts Payable Information System (APIS) manages all outgoing payments of the company. It tracks supplier invoices, payment schedules, and disbursements to ensure timely and accurate processing of obligations. This system helps maintain strong vendor relationships, improves cash flow control, and ensures financial compliance.