

General Ledger

(GLIS - BLENDWELL)

The General Ledger Information System (GLIS) serves as the core accounting system that records all financial transactions. It consolidates data from different modules to generate financial statements, monitor account balances, and support auditing and compliance requirements.